A Personal Note...

"As I reflect on my own accomplishments, it is hard for me to believe all the things that I have done. I am often asked, "If I have truly done all the things that are claimed, why am I not in Nashville or LA?" The answer is simple, I'm working and making living like the rest of the world plus I get to live in Colorado where the things I love to do are in my backyard. If bigger things come to be that's great, but in the meantime, I am making a great living and doing what I love to do. How many people can say that?"

Performing is interesting. Sometimes it means singing to Barbara Walters At a Manhattan Penthouse Apartment (which I've done) on 5th Avenue overlooking Central Park, and yes, sometimes it means singing in between events at a Sheep Dog Trial (which I've also done) next to the sheep pens with the sheep baaing in the background during one of my songs "you are the wind, baa-aa-neath my wings." Notice! I capitalized "Barbara Walters" and "Sheep Dog Trials." Yes, they both paid well, but the actual reason I capitalized both was because if my Sheep Dog friends were to believe that I thought their event wasn't as important as Barbara Walters, next time I may be playing inside the pens with the sheep instead of next to them, and that's no joke."

People love his ability write songs on the spot!

I perform with the same passion and intensity whether I'm volunteering my time for one of my favorite charities at home or playing for thousands of people before a major act. There is no event too small nor am I too small for any event. I would love to discuss your needs and even if I cannot help you directly, I may have a few suggestions to help you accomplish your entertainment goals."
